

Colour Wheel Ottoman

Alexander Girard, 1967

Description

Colour Wheel Ottoman by Alexander Girard for Vitra.

The Colour Wheel Ottoman was part of 'The Girard Group' furniture collection presented by Alexander Girard in 1967. This line had been developed with the goal of bringing individuality and colour into living and working environments with high-quality, compact furniture. Pieces in the collection had previously caused a sensation as part of Girard's legendary interiors for Braniff Airlines.

The re-edition of the Colour Wheel Ottoman by Vitra is available in two versions: either with three coordinated colours regularly arranged on the generously proportioned cushion in nine equally sized, narrow triangles, or with the triangular segments all covered with the same Millerstripe pattern. The two versions are each available in several different colours which, despite their very different appearances, have one thing in common: they give the ottoman its unmistakably unique graphic look.

Dimensions:
