

Stendig Calendar 2018

Massimo Vignelli, 1966

Description

Stendig calendar 2018 by Massimo Vignelli for the Cromwell Company.

Designed in 1966, Massimo Vignelli's iconic Stendig calendar is the only calendar in the design collection of the Museum of Modern Art in New York.

Its simple and timeless design has granted it the status of design classic and it has been popular with architects and designers worldwide for over 40 years.

The calendar consists of 12 sheets of randomly alternating black and white pages in Helvetica type printed on 60lb paper. It has three matte black metal eyelets on the binding strip for easy hanging and the perforated sheets can be torn off.

Please note: limited stock of this sought-after seasonal item is available, so place your order early to avoid disappointment.
