

Ace stool

Philippe Malouin, 2016

Description

Ace stool by Philippe Malouin.

The Ace Stool by Philippe Malouin was conceived as part of a series of objects curated by Modern Design Review magazine for the 'Ready Made Go' exhibition held at the Ace Hotel, London.

This simple and characterful piece bears all the hallmarks of a contemporary classic. Its modernist, three-legged design takes inspiration from the iconic Aalto 60 stool, making it a practical addition to any space.

Stackable, light, and sturdy, the Ace stool can also be used as a small side table. Available exclusively through the Ace Hotel or twentytwentyone.

Made of solid birch and available in four finishes: terracotta, petrol, khaki, or lacquered natural birch.

Stackable up to a height of four stools. Self-assembly required.

Dimensions:
33.5dia x 44cmh

Please note: Lacquered Natural Birch and Petrol are currently out of stock.
