

Charlock throw

Eleanor Pritchard,

Description

Charlock wool and linen throw by Eleanor Pritchard.

Hand-woven on traditional 'dobcross' shuttle looms at a small mill in West Wales, Eleanor Pritchard's textiles combine traditional craftsmanship, heritage and a strong sense of place with a distinctly contemporary use of colour and pattern. Pritchard's personal interest in mid-century textile design is a strong factor in designs which nevertheless remain resolutely of the moment.

For 2017 Eleanor Pritchard has introduced a new collection of blankets and cushions woven in a mix of wool and linen yarns.

The Charlock blanket features a graphic grid pattern in chrome yellow wool woven with contrasting chalk and black and white marl linen. Raw edge stitching.

The design is named after the vivid yellow flowers of the Charlock or field mustard plant.

A matching Charlock cushion is also available.

Handwoven in wool and linen.

50% wool, 50% linen.
