

Broadchalke throw

Eleanor Pritchard,

Description

Broadchalke wool and linen throw by Eleanor Pritchard.

Hand-woven on traditional 'dobcross' shuttle looms at a small mill in West Wales, Eleanor Pritchard's textiles combine traditional craftsmanship, heritage and a strong sense of place with a distinctly contemporary use of colour and pattern. Pritchard's personal interest in mid-century textile design is a strong factor in designs which nevertheless remain resolutely of the moment.

For 2017 Eleanor Pritchard has introduced a new collection of blankets and cushions woven in a mix of wool and linen yarns.

The Broadchalke throw is reversible and features a graphic design in ink blue, chalk with black and white marl. The pattern is named for the picturesque Wiltshire village situated in the Chalke valley.

A matching pair of Broadchalke cushions are also available.

Handwoven in wool and linen.
