

Barbican Estate card

Paul Farrell,

Description

Barbican Estate card by Paul Farrell.

Bristol based printmaker and designer Paul Farrell has been producing bold, colourful and graphic work for over 20 years. His "Brutal is Beautiful" series of cards capture the essence of some of the capital's most familiar buildings with trademark graphic stylisation.

The Barbican Estate was designed by architectural practice Chamberlin, Powell and Bon from 1973 to 1976. It remains one of London's most compelling experiments in high-rise urban living and its towers are a distinctive presence on the London skyline.

Digitally printed in the UK on premium quality matt white 280gsm card from a sustainable source. The inside is left blank for your message.

Supplied with a white gummed envelope and individually packaged in a cellophane sleeve.
