

Trio shelf

Achille Castiglioni, 1954

Description

Trio shelf by Achille Castiglioni for Karakter.

The Trio shelf evolved from Castiglioni's fascination with the question of how best to make use of the 'lost space' in the corners of rooms. He produced several designs intended specifically to be placed in a corner, transforming empty space into something functional and useful - including the Lungangolo shelf, also reissued by Karakter.

Trio shelving units are free-standing and feature three triangular shelves. Whether standing alone in a corner, doubled up as a feature in the centre of a room, or placed beside a sofa or lounge chair, they serve as elegant and highly flexible storage.

Karakter's reissue of this notable design, authorised by La Fondazione Achille Castiglioni, ensures its appreciation by a new generation of design enthusiasts.

Available in matte-lacquered or black-stained oak.
