

City Hall wall clock

Arne Jacobsen, 1956

Description

City Hall wall clock by Arne Jacobsen for Rosendahl.

Arne Jacobsen designed the City Hall wall clock for Rødovre Town Hall in 1956 and went on to create a version for the home. Rosendahl have faithfully re-produced the classic clock in accordance with the original concept drawings, retaining the elegantly minimalist design with simple linear hands and time-indices.

Like many of Jacobsen's wall clocks, this features a concave mineral glass face and a slightly extruded base to appear as though floating when mounted on the wall.

Mechanism: Japanese RHYTME movement

1.5 V AA battery required. Batteries not included
