This item is a one-off clearance item to be sold on a first order, first served basis.

Each Feldspar soy wax candle is hand-poured in Devon into bone china containers. The containers are dimpled, producing a lantern-like glow when the candle is lit. The scents are made from pure essential oils and inspired by the Devon countryside surrounding the studio.

Available in a range of scents: Ash & Kelp.

ASH is reminiscent of a campfire, particularly the spiced scent of burning Ashwood. It is warming and woody with a base of smoky vetiver and sweet rosewood, with uplifting top notes of mandarin.

KELP is a scent reminiscent of the coast, uplifting and breezy with top notes of sweet fennel and Sicilian bergamot, and a base of fresh petitgrain. The wax is then infused with Kelp, to add an ozonic note.

50+ hour burn time.

Each candle comes in an embossed white gift box.
