

Mini Rainbow Pot

Stella Baggot,

Description

Mini Rainbow planter pot by Stella Baggot for Atelier Stella.

Stella Baggott creates stoneware ceramics with subtle personalities, each with unique impressed decorations and glazes. The pots and planters are entirely functional to carry flowers, herbs or succulents, as well as pencils, pens or kitchen utensils. The addition of vegetation adds even more character.

Made of creamy stoneware clay, the mini Rainbow pot features a shiny, off-white glaze, highlighted with gold lustre. The gold lustre is a real gold-based finished, applied by hand.

Atelier Stella ceramics are hand-sculpted using slab and pinch-pot techniques to create unique and characterful designs influenced by Swedish, Italian and Cornish pottery of the 1950s and 60s.

Please note the pot does not have drainage holes.
