

MG501 Cuba chair

Morten Gøttler , 1997

Description

MG501 Cuba chair by Morten Gøttler for Carl Hansen & Son.

The MG501 - also known as the Cuba chair - is a light and flexible folding chair that fits well into any room. It provides comfortable additional seating whilst being easy to store, either hung on a wall or on a floor stand.

The frame is made of solid oak, around which girths are woven. The webbing on the seat and back provides excellent support and seating comfort.

Hook for one chair or rack for 4 chairs available upon request.

Oak frame available in a range of finishes: soap, oil, and painted black.

Cotton webbing in natural or black.
