

KIPU ottoman

Anderssen & Voll, 2014

Description

KIPU ottoman designed by Anderssen and Voll.

Born from their fascination with the smooth pebbles of rivers, inspired by natural elements, the modular seating KIPU is a further step in the evolution of the lounge area.

The shape comes from the constraints of the triangle, softened by the choice of colours and fabrics, intersected by visible stitches, which underline its contemporary and informal spirit. Flexibility in combining them and extreme functionality, make KIPU a crossover product, suitable for working spaces, informal meeting areas, waiting zones, libraries but also residential projects, where comfortable "islands" can be joined.

Available in three sizes, heights and colours.

Ottoman upholstered with polyurethane and covered with removable fabric. Glides in polyethylene.
