

Eames EA 104

Charles & Ray Eames, 1958

Description

Eames Aluminium Chair EA 104 by Charles & Ray Eames for Vitra.

Ideal for using in combination with tables: in comparison to the other models in the Aluminium Group, the EA 104 has a narrower and higher seat, more upright backrest and shorter armrests. Thanks to a wide selection of colours, it's easy to find the perfect chair for any setting - from home dining rooms and restaurants to office meeting areas.

Chair with medium-high backrest, table oriented sitting position. Side profiles, spreaders and four-star swivel base in die-cast aluminium in chromed or polished finish. Castors available in hard plastic for carpet, or felt for hard flooring.

Back-rest and seat upholstered in fabric and leather of the collection. For leather options, the seat cover is leather and the reverse side is covered with Plano fabric.

Please see downloadable fabric and leather swatches for upholstery options or use the Vitra configurator for this design to explore the available options.

The EA 104 chair has a swivel base with armrests. For options without a swivel base view the EA 101 and EA 103.

Swivel base with armrests.
