

Moon pendant light

Daide Groppi, 2005

Description

Moon pendant lamp by Daide Groppi.

An evocative pendant light that casts a light as soft and atmospheric as its namesake.

The spherical shade is constructed from traditional Japanese paper and PVC, with overlapping thicknesses of paper creating a textural effect that enhances the resemblance to the moon's surface.

Available in three sizes, all of which come with a white cable and ceiling rose.

The small size is also available as a dual emission option which comes with a transparent cable and white rose.
