

Plane chandelier

Tom Dixon, 2014

Description

Plane chandelier by Tom Dixon.

Described by Tom Dixon as "an exercise in expressive minimalism", the Plane collection of lights features a planar brass-plated steel frame which intersects with a double-layered white glass sphere. The collection comprises a range of pendant lights and a table and wall light.

The Plane chandelier consists of eighteen double-layered glass globes arranged in tiers around a sculptural geometric brass-plated frame.

Supplied with 250cm black braided cable and brass-plated metal ceiling rose.
