

Orbit Wall Sconce

Workstead,

Description

Orbit wall light designed by Workstead.

The Orbit wall lamp is a modern interpretation of an early American candleholder form.

It features a reflective spun brass disc which can be rotated 320 degrees. The sconce can act as both a reflector and deflector of light, radiating a uniquely warm glow from a single point of light.

Hardwired or plug-in options with integrated dimmer. Made in Brooklyn, New York.

Available in brass, bronze, and nickel finishes.
