

Björk pouf

Lena Bergstrom, 2009

Description

Björk pouf stool by Lena Bergstrom for Design House Stockholm.

Inspired by the black and white trunk of the birch tree - 'Björk' in Swedish - Lena Bergstrom has created the Björk collection based on the shifting tones of wool combined with leather details. To achieve the marbled effect, different coloured wool yarns are intertwined in the weft.

"The textile forms a beautiful surface in the home, as natural as stone or wood. To me Björk is like poetry, like a quiet whisper in the room" says designer Lena Bergstrom.

Part of the Björk range, the upholstered pouf stool features a cylindrical form with leather straps.

The Björk stool comes in light grey or dark.

Available in two heights 35cm (with horizontal strap) and 40cm (with vertical strap).

Made of 100% wool, leather detailing. Upholstery: fire retardant polyurethane foam, styrofoam core.

Please note, due to the handmade nature, each piece can differ from product to product.
